Tena Koutou Katoa

Hope you all had a great break over Easter and enjoyed the mild weather. We have just 8 days until the school holidays, can't believe how quickly the term has gone. Congratulations and all the best to the following students who are representing the zone at the Canterbury swimming champs tomorrow. We know they will all give it their personal best.

As promised, attached is a breakdown of costs for the rest of the year. Please be aware these are approximate and subject to change, they are merely an estimate for you. A reminder that you are welcome to set up a payment system with the office to pay an amount each pay if this works better for you.

Student Council

Next week,

Thursday 15 April, we are holding a mufti day to support WWF (World Wildlife Fund) in their quest to save the Maui Dolphins. These dolphins are found only on the coast of New Zealand and there are only 63 left in the world. Help us to save them, wear blue to represent the ocean and bring a gold coin donation.
